10,000 Tickets at 5 Dollars

Nearly Two Prizes to Three Blanks Subject to 15 per cent. deduction

The public are here presented with a scheme abounding in prizes to do good. Here is no overgrown prize to swallow half its funds, to swell the coffers of a rich man, or turn the head of a poor man giddy by its magnitude. Here is no vastly great prize, but an unusual number of such as maketh the heart glad.—The drawing will positively commence on or before the 13th day of May next, and continue each week until completed.

On Friday next, Tickets will rise to $5 50.

Orders for Tickets and shares received at the truly Fortunate Lottery Office of JOSIAH C. SHAW, No 118, Thames-street. Newport, April 7.

The High Prizes again From WAITE'S Offices.

ON the first day of this month (April) was drawn the Capital Prize of 30,000 Dollars in the Trinity Church Lottery, now drawing in Baltimore. It was sold for

SHARES OF TICKETS,

SIGNED BY G. & R. WAITE,

Part of it to Mr. Workinger, Blacksmith part to Mr. Snyder, Brass Founder, both of Baltimore, and other parts to adventurers in New-York and Philadelphia.—The fortunate holders of which are informed, that they may receive the Cash immediately, by applying to either of G. & R. WAITE'S Offices in New-York, Albany, Philadelphia or Baltimore.

It is worthy of remark, that on the same day was drawn, a prize of Five Thousand Dollars in the Washington Monument Lottery, which was also sold by G. & R. WAITE. But more, to a gentleman of the city. The Capital Prize of 20,000 Dollars in the late Pennsylvania Lottery, and one of 3,000 Dollars in the late Virginia Canal Lottery were both sent from the Offices to Baltimore, and in the New-York Lottery, most of the Capital Prizes for many years past, it is well known have been sold by G. & R. WAITE, who have now for sale at their Truly Fortunate Lottery Offices, Nos. 64 and 28, Maiden-Lane, New-York, and No. 28, Sixe-street, Albany, a great variety of Tickets and shares in the Board of Health Lottery,

Which is the next one to be drawn in New-York 40,000 Dollars Highest Prize.

1) Bani Adventurers, by enclosing the cash may have Tickets and Shares forwarded by Mail to any part of the United States, with perfect safety, and on as good terms as though they resided in the city; and at the end of the drawing they will be informed by G. & R. WAITE, of the fate of their Tickets.

The Public will please to take Notice that all Tickets from G. & R. WAITE'S Offices have the name printed on the back of each, and thus without their name are not from their Offices.—They will advance Cash for Prizes as soon as drawn, and give all Lotteries information gratis.

A liberal allowance made to those who buy a quantity of Tickets

Orders for Tickets in all the Eastern Lotteries, received at each of their Offices.

Orders for Tickets and Shares in all the Southern Lotteries, received by
